Other terms and conditions

- 1. Those attending Stamford Summer School must comply with the directions given to them and abide by the rules of the school. We reserve the right to require the immediate removal of any child whose behaviour is inimical to the general interest and welfare of the school. In such circumstances there will be no refund of fees, and any additional cost incurred will be passed on to parent or guardian for settlement.
- 2. We accept children on the assumption that they are in good health. We do not accept responsibility for the loss of, or damage to property belonging to the participants attending the school. We do not accept responsibility for any loss due to delays or changes in public transport, weather, quarantine, sickness, strike, riot, or any other cause. We do not accept any responsibility for any injury or loss of life to any participant, however caused.
- 3. The programme details, together with the main brochure of which they form a part, have been published in good faith. Should outside factors necessitate our making changes to any aspects of the programme, we reserve the right to do so
- 4. These conditions, together with the published programme details, form the basis of any contract between parents/guardian and the school, which contract is subject to the laws of England.
- 5. I will make the Summer School aware of any pre-existing medical conditions and any allergies the participant has or may have.
